

Where To Shuck, Slurp And Celebrate National Oyster Day On August 5

It's time to shuck, slurp and find your finest pearls — National Oyster Day is just around the corner on Sunday, August 5th! Whether your preference is on the half-shell, raw or fried, here are a few of the best places in San Diego to enjoy oysters.

THE DUCK DIVE — Located steps from the sand in sunny Pacific Beach, The Duck Dive's menu is compiled of classic American dishes as well as coastal favorites. Happy Hour at this beach bar is Monday through Friday, from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., where you can enjoy half-off all snacks, like the Oysters Rockefeller – a classic dish with a twist! Broiled oysters are topped with chopped shrimp, spinach, chipotle, pepperjack cheese and bread crumbs, and can be ordered by the half-dozen for $9 or dozen for $12.50 – what a deal!

MISS B'S COCONUT CLUB — Experience a taste of the islands at Miss B's Coconut Club, a Caribbean-inspired bar and eatery in Mission Beach that hosts $1 Oyster Night every Friday night. Beginning at 5:00 p.m., slurp oysters served with chimichurri, house cocktail sauce, horseradish and fresh lemon while enjoying an iconic San Diego sunset. And to help wash down those slippery shellfish, sip on $5 glasses of Chloe Rosé, a crisp and fruity flavored Pinot Noir, available all-day on Fridays!

FISH SHOP — Looking for a shuckin’ good deal on oysters?! Look no further than Fish Shop’s Pacific Beach, Point Loma, Encinitas and Hermosa Beach locations, which all take pride in serving the freshest fish in the neighborhood. Every Thursday evening, each spot serves $1 Oysters starting at 4:00 p.m.! Hermosa Beach also has $5 Oyster Shooters, served either spicy or non-spicy with a beer chaser and poached shrimp garnish, during Happy Hour on weekdays (excluding Thursdays) from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

OSETRA SEAFOOD & STEAKS — Celebrate with Osetra Seafood & Steaks, home to a dedicated oyster raw bar. A shuckin’ good time is promised to everyone at Osetra’s Happy Hour, featuring Oysters On The ½ Shell for only $1 each or a specially-priced deal of 10 oysters & a bottle of select wine, available from 4:00 PM – close all summer long!

GREYSTONE PRIME STEAKHOUSE & SEAFOOD — If you are a lover of briny bivalve mollusks, glorify these sea-plucked delicacies at Greystone Prime Steakhouse & Seafood. Sip from the award-winning wine list and selection of seasonal specialty craft cocktails before slurping up a shareable order of the Oysters Rockefeller, served with sautéed spinach, applewood bacon, pecorino cheese and dill sauce, of the daily Happy Hour special of $1.50 oysters and more from 4:00 PM to 6:30 PM!

WATERBAR — Is there any better way to enjoy fresh oysters than accompanied by stunning views of the glimmering ocean? Waterbar in Pacific Beach is the idyllic spot to slurp down oysters this National Oyster Day, and with floor-to-ceiling windows framing the location’s ocean-front overlook, oyster fanatics can indulge their senses with $1 Oysters and $5 Oyster Shooters, both of which will be available all day long on this special day dedicated to the seaside delicacy!

CLOAK & PETAL — If a Japanese twist on oysters sounds more up your palate alley, head to Little Italy’s Cloak & Petal this National Oyster Day. Known for slinging innovative Japanese small plates and a slew of sushi items, this trendy eatery offers Oysters on the Half-Shell served with radish, ponzu and scallions, bringing a kick of flavorsome Japanese zests to the mix. Paired with the eatery’s eye-catching décor, including two true-to-size faux cherry blossom trees that canopy the bar, this dining destination brims with style and flair.
